

Domashevsky S.V. Resettlement of the Great grey owl in Ukrainian Polesie //Russian ornithological journal. - 2017. – Vol. 26, Express release 1391.- P. 135-137.

The Great grey owl Strix nebulosa is listed in the Red Book of Ukraine, belongs to the III category of protected species. This article presents materials collected over the past 20 years in the northern part of the Right-Bank Polesie of Ukraine. Also the literature data analyzed are on the current state of the Great grey owl in the region. Over the past decades, the Great grey owl began to actively settle in the north of Ukrainian Polesie, exploring new territories on the right bank of the Dnieper in the Kiev region, and also in the Zhytomyr, Rivne and Volyn regions.